

Department of Law

- Position:

researcher with a fixed-term employment contract for three-year research program with regard to article 24 of Law number 240/10, paragraph 3, letter a). SSD. IUS 19 STORIA DEL DIRITTO MEDIEVALE E MODERNO;

- Responsibilities related to teaching, student service and research:

Teaching activities of the successful candidate will concern topics of the disciplinary sector IUS 19. Researcher will carry out supplementary teaching and service to students and their mode of operation: the candidate will be expected to perform scientific, educational and supplementary activities in the graduate programs of University supporting the activities which each academic year are scheduled from the competent academic authorities. Research activity will concern topics of disciplinary sector IUS 19;

- Targets:

Scientific productivity: (publications in specialized magazines, national and international meetings)

- [3 publications/year (at least)- 2 publications/year in journals rated as "Class A"]

- Writing monograph (it is not necessary for the monograph to be ready at the end of the three years; but the relevant scientific data must have been collected and processed at advanced stage);

- Location of teaching activities:

University of Molise. Research activity will may be carry out in different location prior authorization by the Department;

- Maximum number of publications presentable: n. 12 (twelve);

- Foreign language whose appropriate knowledge will be ascertained by an oral exam: English;

- Reporting method:

Researcher will drawing up an annual report about research and teaching activities. A final report is required oppure (At the end of the grant the above report shall describe accurately and thoroughly teaching and research activities).