

Department of Medicine and Health Sciences “Vincenzo Tiberio”

Fixed-term contract as researcher in scientific field M-PSI/01. Area 11 Historical, Philosophical, Pedagogical and Psychological Sciences – Competitive Sector 11/E1 – General Psychology, Psychobiology and Psychometrics – Scientific Field M-PSI/01 in co-financing with Sapienza university of Rome.

- Scientific productivity objectives and qualitative characteristics of scientific production:

The candidate must have valid research skills attested by participation in research projects funded by national or international public institutions and by obtaining research grants. He will primarily work on the scientific and organizational level of the project ANIA CARE, developing specific researches on trauma and its consequences on affective and cognitive levels and coordinating and supervising the activities at Cardarelli Hospital in Campobasso.

The research activities will principally focus on interdisciplinary aspects of General Psychology, with special regard to research areas already existing in the department (Applied Psychology to legal and forensic Context). It will reconcile the lines of research with innovation and internationalization and will provide a significant contribution to future VQR assessments of the Department of Medicine and Health Science “Vincenzo Tiberio” of University of Molise with publications on international journals.

- Activities, students’ service and research program:

The candidate will carry teachings of general psychology and related subjects in Bachelor’s and Masters’ degree courses and Ph.D. at the Department of Medicine and Health Science “Vincenzo Tiberio” of University of Molise. He will also assist students in the preparation of papers for the final examination and degree thesis and perform tutoring activities.

- Venue for activities: Campobasso

- Maximum Number of publication that the candidate may present: 12

- Required Foreign Language: English

- Mode of reporting the results of the research activities: annual report on conducted teaching and research activities, research projects ongoing and expected results in term of publications on International Journals.