

Profile:

- 1 contract as fixed-term researcher in accordance to art. 24, paragraph 3, point a) of the Law n. 240/10 for the Scientific Area coded as MED/08 – Pathological Anatomy, examination section 06/A4 - Pathological Anatomy, Area 06 – Medical Sciences;
- Teaching activities: the candidate will teach courses of pathological anatomy in Bachelor, Master and PhD programs at the Department of Medicine and Health Sciences "Vincenzo Tiberio" of the University of Molise. Will assist students in writing the final essay and the Master degree thesis and will carry out tutoring activities.
- Research activity: will be based especially on the interdisciplinary aspects of pathological anatomy with the other clinical and research branches of the Department, with a special attention on innovation and internationalization;
- Scientific objectives (publications, congresses, other productions.....) and qualitative aspects: the candidate shall address research objectives of high international profile, by publishing on internationally renowned journals with a valuable impact on the next VQR (research quality evaluation) of the Department of Medicine and Health "Vincenzo Tiberio";
- Working place: Campobasso
- Maximum number of publications to submit: 12
- Foreign language: English;
- Interim and final report of the activities: the researcher will submit yearly reports on the teaching and research activities carried out, on the ongoing research projects and expected results in terms of publication on international reviews.