

Competition sector 12/C1 - Constitutional Law SSD IUS / 08

Features Specifications:

The candidate must be able to carry out teaching activities in the framework of the teachings of SSD IUS/08 - Constitutional Law and related fields awarded at the University of Molise Studies, with particular reference to the State/Regions dynamics, the role of autonomy in the Italian and UE context, the profile of fundamental freedoms and equality;

Research activity:

The candidate must have the capacity to conduct national and international scientific research activities in SSD IUS / 08 Constitutional Law, with particular reference to the declination of equality, the transformation of the representative order, the relations between uniformity and autonomy in the Italian Constitutional context, adopting the qualitative methodology of the disciplinary sector;

Nationally recognized quality standards and any other qualifications of didactic and scientific qualifications:

Scientific competence in the field of SSD IUS/08 Constitutional Law, with particular reference to research in the State/Regions relations, to the analysis of the transformations of the representative system, the territory of the Nation, the fundamental rights. The candidate must also demonstrate the ability to organize national and international panels;

Language skills: english knowledge

Maximum number of publications that the candidate can present: 12

Place of employment: Law Department

How the researcher is obliged, periodically and at the end of the contract, to reporting the results:

Written report on research activities, with particular emphasis on national and international collaborations in SSD IUS/08 and adjacent sectors.