

Research associate (fixed term) art. 24 Law 240/2010:

- n. 1 contract as fixed term research associate type a) for the Scientific-Disciplinary Sector (SSD) MED/35 – Skin and Venereal Diseases, Examination section 06/D4 – Skin diseases, infectious diseases and gastrointestinal diseases, Area 06 – Medical Sciences

profile SSD MED/35

- Master Degree in Medicine and Surgery
- Specialization in Skin and Venereal Diseases
- Teaching, research and tutoring program: the candidate shall teach Skin and Venereal Diseases classes within 1st cycle (Bachelor) and 2nd cycle (Master) Degree Courses, and for the PhD programs of the Department of Medicine and Health "Vincenzo Tiberio" at Università degli Studi del Molise. He shall also assist students in the preparation of the final thesis at the above mentioned courses and act as a tutor;
- The research activity shall address both the specific sector and cross the other clinical and research fields of the Department, by matching the clinical applications of the research threads with innovative and internationalizing aspects;
- Scientific objectives (publications, congresses, other productions.....) and qualitative aspects: the candidate shall address research objectives of high international profile, by publishing on internationally renowned journals with a valuable impact on the next VQR (research quality evaluation) of the Department of Medicine and Health "Vincenzo Tiberio";
- Working place: Campobasso
- Maximum number of publication to submit: 12
- Language skills: English;
- Interim and final report of the activities: the researcher shall submit yearly reports on the teaching and research activities carried out, on the ongoing research projects and expected results in terms of publication on international reviews.