

Department of Medicine and Health Sciences “Vincenzo Tiberio”

1. A selection procedure shall be opened for the recruitment of one researcher for a three-year fixed-term employment contract, with the following specifications:

- Profile: Fixed-term researcher, in accordance with art. 24, paragraph 3, letter a), Law n. 240/2010, Academic Discipline MED/44 – Occupational Medicine, Academic recruitment field 06/M2 – Forensic and Occupational Medicine;
- Teaching program, assistance to students: the candidate shall teach Occupational Medicine and related disciplines for the Bachelor’s Degree Courses, Master’s Degree Course and Specialization Courses of the Department of Medicine and Health Sciences “Vincenzo Tiberio” of the University of Molise. The candidate shall also provide assistance to students in drafting the paper for the Bachelor Degree final test and Master’s degree final thesis;
- Research activity: The research activity shall be addressed to the interdisciplinary aspects of Occupational Medicine, with particular regard to the correlation between work and disability and to the evaluation of the social impact of pathologies within the fields of social security and welfare;
- Scientific productivity (publications, participation to conferences, etc) and quality of scientific production: the candidate shall aim to high standard international production, with publications on high-impact journals that can significantly contribute to the next VQR evaluations of the Department;
- Place of work: Campobasso;
- Maximum number of publications to present: 12;
- Timetable and modalities for reporting the results of the work done by the researcher: annual report on teaching and research activities, on ongoing research projects and expected results in terms of publication on international journals.