

Department of Medicine and Health Sciences “Vincenzo Tiberio”.

Profile

Comparative procedure for the cover of n. 1 position of university professor according to the Italian Law. n. 240/10, art. 18, paragraph 1, for the Macro sector Human Anatomy and Histology 05/H for sector competition 05/H1–Human Anatomy -scientific sector BIO/16–Human Anatomy for Area 05–Biological Sciences.

Specific functions that candidate should fulfill and required teaching and research activity:

Requested teaching duties:

The candidate will be able to carry out the teaching activities typical of the scientific sector (SSD) Human Anatomy (BIO/16) and of similar scientific sectors issued at University of Molise, with emphasis on single cycle Degree Course in Medicine and Surgery.

Requested research duties:

The candidate will be able to perform research activities in sector BIO/16–Human Anatomy with particular reference to the study through morphological and molecular methods of the characteristics and properties of endothelial progenitors during differentiation, vasculogenesis and normal and pathological angiogenesis.

National and international scientific duties:

The open position is devoted to a candidate having remarkable scientific expertise and time continuing teaching activity in Human Anatomy also with a multidisciplinary approach. The candidate should have international scientific and academic skills as evidenced by participation to national and international research projects. Moreover, the candidate should demonstrate ability to coordinate national and international research projects.

Maximum number of admitted papers:

Not more than 16 papers will be evaluated.

Language skill:

English

Operative place:

Department of Medicine and Health Sciences “Vincenzo Tiberio” (University of Molise)