

Department of Law

Position:

Fixed and defined (partial) term Researcher Contract Type a): art. 24 of law 240/2010 for Scientific Disciplinary Sector IUS/15 – Civile Procedural law, examination section 12/F1 Civil Procedural Law, Area 05 Law Sciences.

Programme of educational activity, student tuition and research:

The candidate must teach civil procedural law and civil enforcement law as part of the master's degree and research doctorate at the Legal Department. It will also provide assistance to students in the preparation of papers for the final examination and master's thesis in the aforementioned courses and in tutoring activities. The research activity will have to address mainly the aspects of complementary jurisdictional protection with respect to the declarative protection and in particular the protection in the voluntary jurisdiction and precautionary with regard to similar protections in the supranational field, with attention also to the procedural profiles of the insolvency proceedings and company.

Objectives of Scientific production (Publications, Conferences and other types of production) and qualitative characteristics of Scientific production:

The candidate will have to set research objectives of high international profile, with publications in journals of high international spread that will lead him to make a significant contribution in the upcoming evaluations VQR of Department of Law in the Molise University.

Site of research activities: Department of Law of University of Molise.

Maximum number of publications that the candidate may present: 12.

Foreign language which is required with thorough knowledge: Advanced English /French /Spanish / German.

Mode of assessment of research, periodical and end of contract to report results of research projects: annual report on educational and research activities, ongoing projects and on expected results in terms of publications on domestic and international journals.