

Department of Economics

Profile: n. 1 contract ex Article 24, Clause 3, letter b), Law 240/10 for a fixed-term researcher, for the disciplinary scientific sector IUS/01 Private Law, competition sector 12/A1 Private Law.

Program of the required didactic, student tuition and research activities: The candidate will be required to teach courses in the disciplinary scientific sector IUS/01 (Private Law) within the Department of Economics of the University of Molise, with particular reference to the three-year undergraduate program in Sciences of Social Work and the master's programme in Social Work and Social Policies, and providing tutoring activities. The research activity will be addressed to the analysis of the private law system emerging from the civil code legislation and its complementary laws. The research will be also devoted to the civil law, to the people's rights, to the family's rights, to the IT rights and to the biolaw.

Scientific productivity objectives and qualitative features of scientific production: The candidate must have high-profile research objectives, aiming at publications leading to provide a significant contribution in the assessments of the quality of research of the Department of Economics. Moreover, the candidate is required to participate to competitive research projects announcements, also with an international relevance, and to organize conferences for the dissemination of the scientific activity of the Department of Economics.

Place of business: Department of Economics of the University of Molise, Via de Sanctis snc, 86100 Campobasso

Maximum number of publications that the candidate can submit: 12.

Department where the candidate will be hinged: Department of Economics of the University of Molise.

Foreign language required: English.

Procedures for the researcher to report on the results of her/his work, periodically and at the end of the contract: annual report describing the didactic and research activities performed.