

Department of Law

Open position in Roman Law.

Description:

The candidate must have solid and proven teaching and research experience in the field of SSD IUS/18 (Roman law and ancient laws), with regard to both public and private Roman law. The profile will have to take into account the object of study also from the epigraphic point of view, so relevant for the territory, and its collocation in the framework of the ancient culture as well as of the European legal tradition. The candidate should contribute to the objectives of internationalisation of the activities of the Department of Law

Essential duties:

The candidate will be called upon to carry out teaching activities conferring with the scientific-didactic sector within the framework of the programming of the Department of Law.

Required languages: Italian, English.

Maximum publication to be presented: 12.

Workplace: Department of Law, Campobasso, Italy.

Method with which the researcher is required, periodically and at the end of the contract, to report the results: written report on the research activities, with particular reference to the publications produced in the three-year reference period.